WORD

READ IT!

ROMANS 13:8-14

⁸ Let no debt remain outstanding, except the continuing debt to love one another, for whoever loves others has fulfilled the law. ⁹ The commandments, "You shall not commit adultery," "You shall not murder," "You shall not steal," "You shall not covet," and whatever other command there may be, are summed up in this one command: "Love your neighbor as yourself." ¹⁰ Love does no harm to a neighbor. Therefore love is the fulfillment of the law. ¹¹ And do this, understanding the present time: The hour has already come for you to wake up from your slumber, because our salvation is nearer now than when we first believed. ¹² The night is nearly over; the day is almost here. So let us put aside the deeds of darkness and put on the armor of light. ¹³ Let us behave decently, as in the daytime, not in carousing and drunkenness, not in sexual immorality and debauchery, not in dissension and jealousy. ¹⁴ Rather, clothe yourselves with the Lord Jesus Christ, and do not think about how to gratify the desires of the flesh.

Who will you share these truths to this week?

PRAY CARE SHARE IN ACTION

Pray for people you are in contact with, or who you come across as you go about your daily life. They are looking for a place where they are deeply cared for and valued. Pray that as you love your neighbor as you love yourself—loving others fully like Jesus, they will discover that safe place in Christ and in His family, the church. Share the gospel to them with urgency that they themselves may live fully and love fully in and through Jesus.

MEMORY VERSE

ROMANS 13:8

Owe nothing to anyone except to love one another; for he who loves his neighbor has fulfilled the law.
