

Great is the Lord! Worship Extravagantly!

LAST WEEK'S MESSAGE

Psalm 103 was written by King David in his later years when he was preparing to pass the throne to his son, Solomon. Having lived through his fair share of experiences – battles, personal failures, moments of triumph, and more – David's central message in this psalm is simple but powerful: "Bless the Lord, always!" But what does it look like to constantly bless the Lord? David shows us three ways to do this.

Great in Power

David begins his psalm by praising God's unmatched greatness, wanting future generations to know His mighty acts (Psalm 145:1-4). God's power is seen throughout scripture, from wiping out armies (2 Kings 19:35) to controlling creation (Psalm 24:1). Even leaders are under His rule (Proverbs 21:1). David experienced this firsthand not only when facing Goliath, but when he defeated a lion and a bear. Just like God intervened in David's impossible situations, His power continues to move in our impossible situations today. He gives us strength of trials, endurance for relationships, and grace that changes lives. When we recognize His power, we respond in awe and worship.

Great in Grace

David experienced God's grace deeply through failure, sin, and restoration.

Even after committing adultery and murder, David still found forgiveness (Psalm 23:3). God disciplines us out of love, and oftentimes it is the painful consequences of sin that teaches us the most valuable lessons. Even in the valley, David felt God's presence and favor (Psalm 23:4-5). He was called "a man after God's own heart" and became an ancestor of Jesus. Once we understand how far God's grace has brought us, we can't help but worship Him (Psalm 145:11-13). God's grace doesn't just save us; it transforms us to live godly lives (Titus 2:12).

Great in Provision

God is our Jehovah Jireh – our ultimate Provider (Psalm 145:15-16). But often, the issue isn't provision, but rather contentment, and we have a habit of turning away from God when we don't get what we want. But when we surrender our desires to Him, we experience His faithfulness deeply. God's common grace is available to all, but His abundant grace is for those who trust Him. He's near to the humble, kind to those who fear Him, and protects those who love Him (Psalm 145:17-19). Greatest of all, He gave us Jesus Christ, our Savior (Romans 6:23; John 3:16).

Jesus alone is reason enough to worship extravagantly.

last week's memory verse

Great is the LORD, and highly to be praised, And His greatness is unsearchable.

discuss this message

- Share at least one instance where you personally encountered God's power, God's grace, and God's provision.
- What are the reasons why some people don't have personal stories of God's power, grace, and provision in their lives?
- How can you show extravagant worship to God knowing how great He is?

YOU BEING HERE IS NO ACCIDENT!

God brought you here
for His purpose.

God loves you.

He desires for you to have a meaningful life with Him in the present and gain
eternal life with Him in the future.

*Know therefore that the Lord your God,
He is God, the faithful God, who keeps His covenant and His lovingkindness to a thousandth generation with those who love Him and keep His commandments
— Deuteronomy 7:9*

God is holy.

We are sinful, and our sin separates us
from Him.

Everyone has sinned and is far away from God's saving presence. — Romans 3:23

God is merciful.

In His love, He made the only way for us to be reconciled to Him: through His son, Jesus Christ. Jesus had to die on the cross for our sins and be raised to life for eternity.

But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Much more then, having now been justified by His blood, we shall be saved from the wrath of God through Him. — Romans 5:8

*I am the way, and the truth, and the life;
no one comes to the Father but through
Me. — John 14:6*

God is gracious.

By placing our faith in Jesus Christ, we are forgiven of our sins and saved from eternal death.

For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish, but have eternal life. — John 3:16

For by grace you have been saved through faith; and that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God; not as a result of works, so that no one may boast. — Ephesians 2:8-9

Would you like to place your faith in Jesus Christ today?

Lord Jesus, I need You. I confess that I am a sinner. I believe that You died on the cross to pay for all my sins. With Your help, I will turn away from my sins. Please come into my life and be my Savior and my Master. I accept Your gift of eternal life. Make me the kind of new person You want me to be. Thank You for giving me eternal life. Amen.

God keeps His promises.

You can be sure that you have eternal life
when you trust in Jesus.

And the testimony is this, that God has given us eternal life, and this life is in His Son. He who has the Son has the life; he who does not have the Son of God does not have the life. These things I have written to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, so that you may know that you have eternal life. — 1 John 5:11-13
