

Live a Life of Worship

LAST WEEK'S MESSAGE

What kind of worship does God want? He wants worship that flows from the heart. In fact, God rebukes superficial worship, outward rituals without inward devotion, in Amos 5:21-24. This truth is echoed by Jesus in Mark 7:6-8 when He warns against honoring God with our lips while our hearts are far from Him. True worship is more than mere rituals. It is a life devoted to loving and obeying God. It is our response to who He is, what He has done, and what He will do. So how do we live a life of worship? Psalm 96 teaches us four truths about worship.

Worship is Singing

Psalm 96:1-2 begins by calling us to sing a new song to the Lord not merely out of habit, but out of fresh encounters and experiences with God. Delight in God is demonstrated by singing! When we count our blessings and stay filled with the Spirit, even in difficult times, we find endless reasons to praise the Lord (Ephesians 5:18-20).

Worship is Proclaiming

To worship means to proclaim God's salvation daily (Psalm 96:2-3). Moreover, worship includes declaring His greatness – His power, beauty, and faithfulness (Psalm 96:4-5). Much like Horatio Spafford, who wrote the song It Is Well With My Soul amid deep pain and loss, we can proclaim and boast of God's love and faithfulness even in trials.

Worship is Giving

Worship also means giving God what He's due (Psalm 96:7-9). Deuteronomy 16:16-17 shows us that worship includes bringing an offering. We bring the offering not out of compulsion, but in recognition that all we have belongs to God. The New Testament teaches us to give proportionately, according to our ability

(1 Corinthians 16:1-2), and the importance of the state of our heart when we give (2 Corinthians 9:6-7). Jesus honored a poor widow who gave out of her lack in Luke 21:1-4. Giving may not always be worship, but true worship always gives.

Psalm 96 also calls us to “worship the Lord in holy attire”, which means to adorn our lives with holiness. Romans 12:1 likewise urges us to offer our bodies as living sacrifices. Worship isn't just what we do in church; it's how we live every day.

Worship is Giving

True worship looks forward with hope. Psalm 96:10-13 declares Christ's return. Worship isn't just about the past or present, it's about anticipating the future promises of God. When we live in expectation of Christ's return, it changes how we worship. Instead of seeking revenge, we leave it to God (Romans 12:19) because we trust in God's justice (Malachi 3:17-18). Anticipation also builds endurance in us, because hope sustains worship in suffering. Christ's return will bring both judgment and joy (Revelation 6:16-17) and promises a breathtaking picture of what is ahead for believers: no more death, sorrow, crying or pain (Revelation 21:3-4). As we wait, we keep serving faithfully (1 Corinthians 15:58), longing for the day we'll see Him face to face (2 Timothy 4:8).

last week's memory verse

Sing to the Lord a new song; Sing to the Lord, all the earth. Sing to the Lord, bless His name; Proclaim good tidings of His salvation from day to day.

PSALM 96:1-2

discuss this message

- If you do not feel like singing, what do you do? What does it mean to sing to the Lord?
- Why is giving important when it comes to worship?
- How will the return of Jesus as judge and king impact the way you live?

YOU BEING HERE IS NO ACCIDENT!

God brought you here for His purpose.

God loves you.

He desires for you to have a meaningful life with Him in the present and gain
eternal life with Him in the future.

*Know therefore that the Lord your God,
He is God, the faithful God, who keeps His covenant and His lovingkindness to a thousandth generation with those who love Him and keep His commandments
— Deuteronomy 7:9*

God is holy.

We are sinful, and our sin separates us
from Him.

Everyone has sinned and is far away from God's saving presence. — Romans 3:23

God is merciful.

In His love, He made the only way for us to be reconciled to Him: through His son, Jesus Christ. Jesus had to die on the cross for our sins and be raised to life for eternity.

But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Much more then, having now been justified by His blood, we shall be saved from the wrath of God through Him. — Romans 5:8

*I am the way, and the truth, and the life;
no one comes to the Father but through
Me. — John 14:6*

God is gracious.

By placing our faith in Jesus Christ, we are forgiven of our sins and saved from eternal death.

For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish, but have eternal life. — John 3:16

For by grace you have been saved through faith; and that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God; not as a result of works, so that no one may boast. — Ephesians 2:8-9

Would you like to place your faith in Jesus Christ today?

Lord Jesus, I need You. I confess that I am a sinner. I believe that You died on the cross to pay for all my sins. With Your help, I will turn away from my sins. Please come into my life and be my Savior and my Master. I accept Your gift of eternal life. Make me the kind of new person You want me to be. Thank You for giving me eternal life. Amen.

God keeps His promises.

You can be sure that you have eternal life
when you trust in Jesus.

And the testimony is this, that God has given us eternal life, and this life is in His Son. He who has the Son has the life; he who does not have the Son of God does not have the life. These things I have written to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, so that you may know that you have eternal life. — 1 John 5:11-13
