

Living a Mission-Driven Lifestyle

In a world full of distractions, it's easy to lose sight of why we're here on this earth. But when you belong to Jesus, life is no longer random or accidental. God has placed a unique calling on your life, one that's part of His greater mission for the world. When we give our lives to Jesus, we're called to live a mission-driven lifestyle. Let's dive into the "what", "how", "who", and the example of Nehemiah when it comes to this divine calling.

The "What": Our Mission

Jesus gave us a clear and timeless command in Matthew 28:19 to "go and make disciples." This Great Commission isn't optional – it's our life's mission. It's more than attending church every week, it's a call to action to share the Gospel, to teach others about Jesus, to baptize them in His name, and help them grow in their faith.

The "How": With All Your Heart

We are to work on our mission with all our heart. That means working on it intentionally, asking God for creativity, strength, and strategy so that we can serve Him excellently. The task may be huge, but God can do immeasurably more than we ask or imagine (Ephesians 3:20). Pray boldly God to equip you to fulfill His purpose for your life. As C.T. Studd said, "Only one life, it will soon be past; only what's done for Christ will last."

The "Who": The Harvest

In Matthew 9:35-38, Jesus had compassion for the crowds. Today, those crowds are our families, coworkers, classmates, and unreached people across the globe. Jim Elliot said, "He is no fool who gives what he cannot keep to gain what cannot lose." Remember that life is short. Millions still haven't heard of Jesus!

Learn From Nehemiah's Example

Don't let distractions keep you from completing your mission. Nehemiah rebuilt Jerusalem's walls despite opposition (Nehemiah 4, 6). He stayed focused, ignored critics, and led people to work with all their heart. Like Nehemiah, we must keep our eyes on Jesus. The enemy may seek to distract or destroy, and challenges may attempt to hinder you as you pursue God's calling, but faithfulness leads to victory and the Holy Spirit strengthens us through every trial. Let's run with perseverance, live with purpose, and stay on mission until the task is complete.

discuss this message

- What does it look like for you personally to live out the Great Commission in your current season?
- What distractions or fears have been pulling you off "the wall" like Nehemiah faced — and how can you stay focused?
- Who in your life needs to see a mission-driven lifestyle in action, and how can you be more intentional with them this week?

YOU BEING HERE IS NO ACCIDENT!

God brought you here for His purpose.

God loves you.

He desires for you to have a meaningful life with Him in the present and gain eternal life with Him in the future.

Know therefore that the Lord your God, He is God, the faithful God, who keeps His covenant and His lovingkindness to a thousandth generation with those who love Him and keep His commandments — Deuteronomy 7:9

God is holy.

We are sinful, and our sin separates us from Him.

Everyone has sinned and is far away from God's saving presence. — Romans 3:23

God is merciful.

In His love, He made the only way for us to be reconciled to Him: through His son, Jesus Christ. Jesus had to die on the cross for our sins and be raised to life for eternity.

But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Much more then, having now been justified by His blood, we shall be saved from the wrath of God through Him. — Romans 5:8

I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me. — John 14:6

God is gracious.

By placing our faith in Jesus Christ, we are forgiven of our sins and saved from eternal death.

For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish, but have eternal life. — John 3:16

For by grace you have been saved through faith; and that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God; not as a result of works, so that no one may boast. — Ephesians 2:8-9

Would you like to place your faith in Jesus Christ today?

Lord Jesus, I need You. I confess that I am a sinner. I believe that You died on the cross to pay for all my sins. With Your help, I will turn away from my sins. Please come into my life and be my Savior and my Master. I accept Your gift of eternal life. Make me the kind of new person You want me to be. Thank You for giving me eternal life. Amen.

God keeps His promises.

You can be sure that you have eternal life when you trust in Jesus.

And the testimony is this, that God has given us eternal life, and this life is in His Son. He who has the Son has the life; he who does not have the Son of God does not have the life. These things I have written to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, so that you may know that you have eternal life. — 1 John 5:11-13
