

PRAY IN AWE OF GOD

Have you ever treated God like a vending machine? Sometimes, that's how we approach God. We put it in a certain amount of "coins," or prayers, thinking that if we say the right things, we'll get what we want. But prayer isn't about getting our way, it's about aligning with God's will. Jesus Himself taught us that prayer is about seeking God's agenda first before presenting our needs! David prays in a way that reveals the posture of His heart before God – a posture of awe. In 2 Samuel 7, we learn three things that caused David to pray in this way.

GOD'S AMAZING BLESSINGS

In 2 Samuel 7:18-22, David sat before the Lord in awe saying, "Who am I Lord...that You have brought me this far? He remembered God's track record in his life – from a shepherd to a king. His posture of worship came from reflecting on God's faithfulness. In the same way that God preserved David even as he was being chased by Saul, when we take a good look, we'll notice that even in trials, God shows up. David's example reminds us to stay still, abide, and reflect on how far God has brought us. Have you counted your blessings lately?

GOD'S WONDERFUL PROMISES

David didn't just thank God for the past; he also thanked God's for His future promises. God said He would build David's house into a lasting dynasty, and that David's son, Solomon, would be the one to build God's temple (2 Samuel 7:4-7, 11-13). God even promised to be a Father to Solomon, to discipline him when needed, and to never remove His love like He did with King Saul (2 Samuel 7:14-15). Knowing God's promises help us pray with awe and trust. What promises are you holding on to?

GOD'S EVERLASTING CHARACTER

David ends his prayer with awe at God's greatness (2 Samuel 7:22). In the same way, we are called to pray in awe not just for what God gives, but because of who He is. The God who created the universe, filled with billions of galaxies, knows us all by name (Isaiah 43:1). The greatest promise God made to David was not just about Solomon, but about an eternal kingdom fulfilled in Jesus, our Savior and King (2 Samuel 7:16; Matthew 1:1, 5-6, 16). Today, as His people, we get to share this good news with others.

Prayer is an invitation to trust, worship, and walk closely with Jesus. Let's pray in awe of God.

last week's memory verse

Then David the king went in and sat before the LORD, and he said, "Who am I, O Lord GOD, and what is my house, that You have brought me this far?"

2 SAMUEL 7:18

YOU BEING HERE IS NO ACCIDENT!

God brought you here for His purpose.

God loves you.

He desires for you to have a meaningful life with Him in the present and gain eternal life with Him in the future.

Know therefore that the Lord your God, He is God, the faithful God, who keeps His covenant and His lovingkindness to a thousandth generation with those who love Him and keep His commandments – Deuteronomy 7:9

God is holy.

We are sinful, and our sin separates us from Him.

Everyone has sinned and is far away from God's saving presence. – Romans 3:23

God is merciful.

In His love, He made the only way for us to be reconciled to Him: through His son, Jesus Christ. Jesus had to die on the cross for our sins and be raised to life for eternity.

But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Much more then, having now been justified by His blood, we shall be saved from the wrath of God through Him. – Romans 5:8

I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me. – John 14:6

God is gracious.

By placing our faith in Jesus Christ, we are forgiven of our sins and saved from eternal death.

For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish, but have eternal life. – John 3:16

For by grace you have been saved through faith; and that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God; not as a result of works, so that no one may boast. – Ephesians 2:8-9

Would you like to place your faith in Jesus Christ today?

Lord Jesus, I need You. I confess that I am a sinner. I believe that You died on the cross to pay for all my sins. With Your help, I will turn away from my sins. Please come into my life and be my Savior and my Master. I accept Your gift of eternal life. Make me the kind of new person You want me to be. Thank You for giving me eternal life. Amen.

God keeps His promises.

You can be sure that you have eternal life when you trust in Jesus.

And the testimony is this, that God has given us eternal life, and this life is in His Son. He who has the Son has the life; he who does not have the Son of God does not have the life. These things I have written to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, so that you may know that you have eternal life. — 1 John 5:11-13
