

All In for God's Mission

When it comes to God's mission, we are called to be all in. The Apostle Paul exemplified this missional mindset by devoting his life to preaching the gospel, shaping lives, and enduring suffering for the sake of Christ. But how did he stay faithful despite so much suffering? Through Paul's writings, we can learn four key motivations to help us go all in for Jesus and His mission, as outlined in the acronym P.A.L.M.

Perspective

In 2 Corinthians 4:16-17, Paul reminds us that though we are wasting away outwardly, inwardly we are being renewed. He calls the trials that we face "momentary light affliction" compared to the eternal glory that lies ahead. The key? Perspective — fixing our eyes not on the visible and temporary, but on the unseen and eternal.

Despite being afflicted, persecuted, and beaten (2 Corinthians 4:8-9, 11:24-28), Paul's mindset remained anchored in hope. He even exhorts in Romans 5:3-4 that he rejoices in suffering because it produces perseverance, character, and hope. Moreover, Paul saw death not as defeat but as gain, and thus longed for eternity, knowing that our earthly bodies are temporary (2 Corinthians 5:1-4).

Accountability

Paul's ambition is revealed in 2 Corinthians 5:9-10: to please God, knowing that one day we will all stand before Christ for judgment (Ephesians 2:8-9). Paul also warns us in 1 Corinthians 3:12-14 that our work will be tested. It's possible to be saved and yet waste our lives if we don't live for Christ's mission. Accountability calls us to evaluate who we are trying to please in our lives.

Love

In 2 Corinthians 5:14-15, Paul reveals that the love of Christ fuels his devotion. Love wasn't just an emotion; it was a driving force for Paul that compelled him to live not for himself but for Jesus. We see this love in action in John 21:15-17. When Peter denied Jesus, Christ restored him by asking, "Do you love me?" Love rekindled Peter's mission, and it must fuel ours too. Loving Jesus leads us to go all-in.

Mission

If anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation (2 Corinthians 5:17). God has given us the ministry of reconciliation, which involves sharing with others the gospel that saved us. As ambassadors of Christ (2 Corinthians 5:20-21), we are sent to proclaim that God made Jesus, who knew no sin, to be sin on our behalf so that we might become righteous. This is the mission. We are not just saved — we are also sent.

Paul's life shows us what it means to go all in for God's mission. It requires the right perspective, a deep sense of accountability, a heart driven by love, and a clear sense of mission. The same call is on us today: to live fully for the One who gave us everything. Go all in for God's mission today!

last week's memory verse

Therefore we also have as our ambition, whether at home or absent, to be pleasing to Him. For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may be recompensed for his deeds in the body, according to what he has done, whether good or bad.

YOU BEING HERE IS NO ACCIDENT!

God brought you here
for His purpose.

God loves you.

He desires for you to have a meaningful life with Him in the present and gain eternal life with Him in the future.

*Know therefore that the Lord your God,
He is God, the faithful God, who keeps His covenant and His lovingkindness to a thousandth generation with those who love Him and keep His commandments
— Deuteronomy 7:9*

God is holy.

We are sinful, and our sin separates us
from Him.

Everyone has sinned and is far away from God's saving presence. — Romans 3:23

God is merciful.

In His love, He made the only way for us to be reconciled to Him: through His son, Jesus Christ. Jesus had to die on the cross for our sins and be raised to life for eternity.

But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Much more then, having now been justified by His blood, we shall be saved from the wrath of God through Him. — Romans 5:8

*I am the way, and the truth, and the life;
no one comes to the Father but through
Me. — John 14:6*

God is gracious.

By placing our faith in Jesus Christ, we are forgiven of our sins and saved from eternal death.

For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish, but have eternal life. — John 3:16

For by grace you have been saved through faith; and that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God; not as a result of works, so that no one may boast. — Ephesians 2:8-9

Would you like to place your faith in Jesus Christ today?

Lord Jesus, I need You. I confess that I am a sinner. I believe that You died on the cross to pay for all my sins. With Your help, I will turn away from my sins. Please come into my life and be my Savior and my Master. I accept Your gift of eternal life. Make me the kind of new person You want me to be. Thank You for giving me eternal life. Amen.

God keeps His promises.

You can be sure that you have eternal life
when you trust in Jesus.

And the testimony is this, that God has given us eternal life, and this life is in His Son. He who has the Son has the life; he who does not have the Son of God does not have the life. These things I have written to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, so that you may know that you have eternal life. — 1 John 5:11-13
