

JESUS WANTS TO USE YOU MIGHTILY

As Christians, we are no strangers to God’s generous nature. Though we celebrate His goodness, are we also allowing God to also use us to bless others? We often bury God’s calls with our excuses. We believe that because our trials are too big to overcome, we aren’t qualified to follow God just yet. If we want God to use us mightily, we shouldn’t focus on what we don’t have. Instead, we should trust that God will build and equip us when we put our faith in Him! Let’s learn how God uses His children mightily through the story of the five loaves and two fish.

TRUST

Sometimes, when we feel inadequate, we are unable to look beyond our current challenges. In the same way Philip questioned Jesus’ ability to feed 5,000 people with so little resources, we question if God can use our limited resources to make an impact in the lives of others. We ask, “What if I don’t know enough to start a DGroup?” or “What if I’m too young to disciple my family?” But remember: God is all-knowing, all-powerful and all-present. He works in our lives in supernatural ways. Even if we can’t see how God can use us at our lowest, we can trust that He empowers us in our weakness (2 Corinthians 12:9). Let’s not look at our problems as hopeless, but as testimonies written by God for us to encourage others.

GIVE

In contrast to Philip’s doubt, Andrew trusted in Jesus when faced with the impossible. He searched and found a young boy who willingly gave his five loaves and two fish to Jesus. When we are told to give, it isn’t because God needs what we have. God wants us to nurture a willing heart that joyfully gives for His glory when the opportunity arises. When we make excuses and cling onto what little we have, we don’t just rob ourselves of the opportunity to witness Jesus’ glory and magnificent provision, we also rob others of the chance to know His greatness.

WATCH

When God grants us the privilege of experiencing His blessings, He doesn’t expect us to stay idle in our faith. Jesus’ multiplication of the five loaves and two fish is a reminder that He can work miracles with the little we have when we give to Him wholeheartedly for His glory! Don’t stay mere observers of His miracles. Just as the boy gave all that he had, we too can choose to give all that we have, whether little or much, for the glory of His Kingdom. God only asks us to begin by doing our best for Him. From there, we can trust that He will multiply the rest!

last week’s memory verse

Therefore when the people saw the sign which He had performed, they said, “This is truly the Prophet who is to come into the world.”

JOHN 6:14

YOU BEING HERE IS NO ACCIDENT!

God brought you here for His purpose.

God loves you.

He desires for you to have a meaningful life with Him in the present and gain eternal life with Him in the future.

Know therefore that the Lord your God, He is God, the faithful God, who keeps His covenant and His lovingkindness to a thousandth generation with those who love Him and keep His commandments – Deuteronomy 7:9

God is holy.

We are sinful, and our sin separates us from Him.

Everyone has sinned and is far away from God's saving presence. – Romans 3:23

God is merciful.

In His love, He made the only way for us to be reconciled to Him: through His son, Jesus Christ. Jesus had to die on the cross for our sins and be raised to life for eternity.

But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Much more then, having now been justified by His blood, we shall be saved from the wrath of God through Him. – Romans 5:8

I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me. – John 14:6

God is gracious.

By placing our faith in Jesus Christ, we are forgiven of our sins and saved from eternal death.

For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish, but have eternal life. – John 3:16

For by grace you have been saved through faith; and that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God; not as a result of works, so that no one may boast. – Ephesians 2:8-9

Would you like to place your faith in Jesus Christ today?

Lord Jesus, I need You. I confess that I am a sinner. I believe that You died on the cross to pay for all my sins. With Your help, I will turn away from my sins. Please come into my life and be my Savior and my Master. I accept Your gift of eternal life. Make me the kind of new person You want me to be. Thank You for giving me eternal life. Amen.

God keeps His promises.

You can be sure that you have eternal life when you trust in Jesus.

And the testimony is this, that God has given us eternal life, and this life is in His Son. He who has the Son has the life; he who does not have the Son of God does not have the life. These things I have written to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, so that you may know that you have eternal life. – 1 John 5:11-13
