

BE TRULY SPIRITUAL

We conclude our series on Galatians with the call to live as truly spiritual people. Spirituality is often misunderstood, with many measuring it by activity, zeal, knowledge position, gifts, or sacrifice. But Scripture shows that none of these alone define a truly spiritual life. Genuine spirituality is a heart fully surrendered to Jesus, guided moment by moment by the Holy Spirit. What does true spirituality look like in the life of a believer?

COMPASSION FOR OTHERS

Galatians 6 begins with a call for those who are spiritual to restore those caught in sin with gentleness. The word “restore” evokes healing, mending, and rebuilding, meaning that spiritual people are not to attack or condemn those who fall to sin, but to lead them back to the Lord while guarding their own hearts. The succeeding verses remind us to bear one another’s burdens, fulfilling the law of Christ, but also humble us by reminding us that everything we have is by grace alone.

ASSUME RESPONSIBILITY

True spirituality includes personal responsibility (Galatians 6:4-6). Each believer must examine their own work and bear their own load, fulfilling the assignments God has given them. Romans 14:12 reminds us that we will each give an account to God. As such, Paul reminds us to share what we have received, not just materially but also spiritually, by following his example of generosity and self-support (Acts 20:33-35, 1 Corinthians 9:18).

MAKE WISE CHOICES

Every choice we make is a seed with a harvest (Galatians 6:7-10). We cannot deceive God or escape the consequences of our actions. Esau’s choice to trade his birthright for immediate pleasure illustrates the danger of sacrificing eternal value for temporal pleasure (Genesis 25:29-32; Hebrews 12:16-17). Sowing in the flesh leads to corruption; sowing in the Spirit leads to eternal life. We must persist in doing good even when the harvest is not immediate (Galatians 6:9).

EXALT JESUS

When we live with compassion for others, assume responsibility, and make wise choices, Jesus is exalted. Paul concludes his letter to the Galatians by declaring that he boasts in nothing except the cross (Galatians 6:14-15). True spirituality leads not to self-glory but to Christ’s glory alone (1 Corinthians 1:23-24). Through the cross, Jesus secured our salvation and spirituality. In return, we ought to live in a way that exalts Him.

last week's memory verse

Do not be deceived, God is not mocked; for whatever a man sows, this he will also reap.

GALATIANS 6:7

discuss this message

- How do you show genuine concern for others?
- Is there any recent mistake you have to assume responsibility for? How do you deal with it moving forward?
- How do we make wise decisions?
- In what ways can we honor Jesus in our day to day life this week?

YOU BEING HERE IS NO ACCIDENT!

God brought you here for His purpose.

God loves you.

He desires for you to have a meaningful life with Him in the present and gain eternal life with Him in the future.

Know therefore that the Lord your God, He is God, the faithful God, who keeps His covenant and His lovingkindness to a thousandth generation with those who love Him and keep His commandments — Deuteronomy 7:9

God is holy.

We are sinful, and our sin separates us from Him.

Everyone has sinned and is far away from God's saving presence. — Romans 3:23

God is merciful.

In His love, He made the only way for us to be reconciled to Him: through His son, Jesus Christ. Jesus had to die on the cross for our sins and be raised to life for eternity.

But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Much more then, having now been justified by His blood, we shall be saved from the wrath of God through Him. — Romans 5:8

I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me. — John 14:6

God is gracious.

By placing our faith in Jesus Christ, we are forgiven of our sins and saved from eternal death.

For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish, but have eternal life. — John 3:16

For by grace you have been saved through faith; and that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God; not as a result of works, so that no one may boast. — Ephesians 2:8-9

Would you like to place your faith in Jesus Christ today?

Lord Jesus, I need You. I confess that I am a sinner. I believe that You died on the cross to pay for all my sins. With Your help, I will turn away from my sins. Please come into my life and be my Savior and my Master. I accept Your gift of eternal life. Make me the kind of new person You want me to be. Thank You for giving me eternal life. Amen.

God keeps His promises.

You can be sure that you have eternal life when you trust in Jesus.

And the testimony is this, that God has given us eternal life, and this life is in His Son. He who has the Son has the life; he who does not have the Son of God does not have the life. These things I have written to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, so that you may know that you have eternal life. — 1 John 5:11-13
