

WORSHIP THE TRUE GOD: HONOR HIS NAME; HONOR HIS SABBATH DAY

LAST WEEK'S MESSAGE

In a world as fast-paced as ours, it is easy to be swept along by the constant rush of life. When our lives become consumed by our own pursuits, our worship slowly shifts. Instead of being centered on God, it begins to reflect the priorities of the world. True worship acts like a thermometer, measuring our intimacy with the Lord and revealing how deeply we value Him. It is our proper response to who He is and what He has done. We worship rightly when we honor His name in everything we do and trust Him enough to surrender to rest and renewal on His appointed day, the Sabbath.

HONOR HIS NAME

God's name reflects His character, which is why we are called to treat it with reverence and care. We misuse His name when we speak it casually, make promises we do not keep, use it to advance personal agendas, or claim to follow Him without living according to His commands. Scripture also warns against living in a way that dishonors Him, as His name may be misrepresented through us (Romans 2:24).

Jesus teaches us to honor God's name by keeping it holy (Matthew 6:9) and by giving thanks in all we do (Colossians 3:17). As we grow in honoring Him through our words and actions, we begin to see our circumstances in light of who He is rather than relying on our own understanding.

HONOR HIS SABBATH

At times, choosing rest can make us feel guilty. In a culture driven by constant productivity, slowing down may seem like falling behind. Yet this is often where God invites us to examine our hearts. The Sabbath is not an act of laziness, but a gift. It is an invitation to trust Him, to be renewed, and to realign our lives around His presence.

After six days of work, God calls us to set apart one day for rest and worship (Exodus 20:8–10). This rhythm reflects His wisdom and reminds us that He is our provider. We honor Him when we observe the Sabbath, resist self-reliance, and choose to trust Him with our time and our needs. Ultimately, true rest is found in Christ, who invites us to come to Him and be refreshed (Matthew 11:28).

last week's memory verse

You shall not take the name of the Lord your God in vain, for the Lord will not [d]eave him unpunished who takes His name in vain. Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy.

EXODUS 20:7-8

discuss this message

Why is it important to honor God's Name and God's Holy Day or Sabbath?

How have you dishonored God in these two commandments in the past, and what will you do to improve on it?

What will you do to develop deeper trust in the Lord so that others around you will want to trust Him too?

YOU BEING HERE IS NO ACCIDENT!

God brought you here for His purpose.

God loves you.

He desires for you to have a meaningful life with Him in the present and gain eternal life with Him in the future.

Know therefore that the Lord your God, He is God, the faithful God, who keeps His covenant and His lovingkindness to a thousandth generation with those who love Him and keep His commandments — Deuteronomy 7:9

God is holy.

We are sinful, and our sin separates us from Him.

Everyone has sinned and is far away from God's saving presence. — Romans 3:23

God is merciful.

In His love, He made the only way for us to be reconciled to Him: through His son, Jesus Christ. Jesus had to die on the cross for our sins and be raised to life for eternity.

But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Much more then, having now been justified by His blood, we shall be saved from the wrath of God through Him. — Romans 5:8

I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me. — John 14:6

God is gracious.

By placing our faith in Jesus Christ, we are forgiven of our sins and saved from eternal death.

For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish, but have eternal life. — John 3:16

For by grace you have been saved through faith; and that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God; not as a result of works, so that no one may boast. — Ephesians 2:8-9

Would you like to place your faith in Jesus Christ today?

Lord Jesus, I need You. I confess that I am a sinner. I believe that You died on the cross to pay for all my sins. With Your help, I will turn away from my sins. Please come into my life and be my Savior and my Master. I accept Your gift of eternal life. Make me the kind of new person You want me to be. Thank You for giving me eternal life. Amen.

God keeps His promises.

You can be sure that you have eternal life when you trust in Jesus.

And the testimony is this, that God has given us eternal life, and this life is in His Son. He who has the Son has the life; he who does not have the Son of God does not have the life. These things I have written to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, so that you may know that you have eternal life. — 1 John 5:11-13
