

Worship God with a Heart in Awe

LAST WEEK'S MESSAGE

When we encounter something so amazing, life-changing, and good, can we really keep it to ourselves? Throughout Scripture, those who genuinely encountered God could never remain the same. His greatness transformed their perspective, reordered their priorities, and compelled them to live differently. The same is true for us today. A heart that stands in awe of God will proclaim His glory, surrender to His will, and eagerly await His return.

Announce His Glory

We naturally talk about the things that excite and amaze us. In the same way, when our hearts are gripped by God's goodness, we cannot help but share it with others. Jeremiah described God's word as a fire shut up in his bones that he could not contain (Jeremiah 20:9). The more we experience God's faithfulness, the stronger our desire becomes to tell others about Him. If we find little desire to speak of God's goodness, it may reveal that our attention has drifted elsewhere. A heart in awe of God cannot remain silent for long. As we behold His glory, our worship overflows into witness.

Worship Through Surrender

Awe also leads to humility. When we recognize God's greatness, we become aware of our dependence on Him. We acknowledge that every blessing, opportunity, and victory comes from His hand. True worship is not merely expressed through songs or words but through surrender. We worship God when we trust Him instead of relying on our own strength, when we give Him credit for His work in our lives, and when we choose faith over worry. A surrendered heart continually points back to God, giving Him the glory He deserves.

Expect His Coming

What we believe about the future shapes how we live today. Scripture teaches that Jesus will return, and His return should fill believers with hope and expectation. As we wait, we are called to live faithfully and remain ready. When our hearts are captivated by God's glory, we begin to long for Christ's return more than anything this world can offer. We look forward to the day when every promise will be fulfilled, every wrong will be made right, and we will be with Him forever.

A heart in awe of God proclaims His glory, surrenders to His will, and lives in anticipation of His return. As we grow in our understanding of who He is, may our lives become a continual act of worship, bringing honor and glory to Him alone.

last week's memory verse

Worship the Lord in holy attire;
Tremble before Him, all the earth.
Say among the nations,
"The Lord reigns; Indeed, the world is firmly established, it will not be moved; He will judge the peoples with equity."

PSALM 96:9-10

YOU BEING HERE IS NO ACCIDENT!

God brought you here for His purpose.

God loves you.

He desires for you to have a meaningful life with Him in the present and gain eternal life with Him in the future.

Know therefore that the Lord your God, He is God, the faithful God, who keeps His covenant and His lovingkindness to a thousandth generation with those who love Him and keep His commandments – Deuteronomy 7:9

God is holy.

We are sinful, and our sin separates us from Him.

Everyone has sinned and is far away from God's saving presence. – Romans 3:23

God is merciful.

In His love, He made the only way for us to be reconciled to Him: through His son, Jesus Christ. Jesus had to die on the cross for our sins and be raised to life for eternity.

But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Much more then, having now been justified by His blood, we shall be saved from the wrath of God through Him. – Romans 5:8

I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me. – John 14:6

God is gracious.

By placing our faith in Jesus Christ, we are forgiven of our sins and saved from eternal death.

For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish, but have eternal life. – John 3:16

For by grace you have been saved through faith; and that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God; not as a result of works, so that no one may boast. – Ephesians 2:8-9

Would you like to place your faith in Jesus Christ today?

Lord Jesus, I need You. I confess that I am a sinner. I believe that You died on the cross to pay for all my sins. With Your help, I will turn away from my sins. Please come into my life and be my Savior and my Master. I accept Your gift of eternal life. Make me the kind of new person You want me to be. Thank You for giving me eternal life. Amen.

God keeps His promises.

You can be sure that you have eternal life when you trust in Jesus.

And the testimony is this, that God has given us eternal life, and this life is in His Son. He who has the Son has the life; he who does not have the Son of God does not have the life. These things I have written to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, so that you may know that you have eternal life. – 1 John 5:11-13
