

Worship God Wholeheartedly

LAST WEEK'S MESSAGE

How do you worship God? It's easy to praise God when life is going well, but true worship means choosing to worship Him in both the good times and the difficult ones. In seasons of sickness, suffering, and uncertainty, we worship God through our trust, obedience, and gratitude. If we struggle to focus on Him and give Him praise during hard times, it may be an invitation to draw closer to Him and examine our hearts. Psalm 103 reminds us that wholehearted worship begins by remembering what God has done, recognizing who He is, and resting in His sovereign care over our lives.

Remember what God has done

In the midst of life's challenges, it's easy to focus on problems rather than God's blessings. Yet worship begins when we intentionally remember His goodness. Psalm 103:3–5 highlights how God forgives, heals, redeems, crowns, and satisfies His people. His forgiveness is complete and undeserved. Through Jesus Christ, we have redemption and the forgiveness of sins (Ephesians 1:7). This truth alone should move us to gratitude and sincere worship. God also sustains us daily. He rescues us from destruction, surrounds us with love and compassion, and fills our lives with good things. When we reflect on His faithfulness, our hearts are drawn to worship Him.

Recognize who God is

It's important to ask ourselves, "What do we think about God?" because our answer dictates how we interpret and navigate this world. God's love for His people knows no bounds. His forgiveness is limitless, and His mercy is immeasurable (Psalm 103:11-12). When we remember God's goodness and grace in our lives, it covers every sin, every failure, and all the suffering we experience in this fallen world. When we understand who God is and what Jesus has done, worship becomes our natural response to His goodness and grace.

Rest in God's Sovereignty

Life is fragile and fleeting, but God's love is everlasting (Psalm 103:15–18). He reigns over all things and fulfills His purposes according to His will (Psalm 103:19). Because God is all-powerful, all-knowing, and ever-present, we can trust Him completely. His sovereignty is not something to fear but a source of comfort. Even when life feels uncertain, we can rest in His control. When we remember what God has done, recognize who He is, and trust in His sovereignty, we can worship Him in every circumstance. Jesus invites us to come to Him and find rest (Matthew 11:28). May we respond with wholehearted worship, honoring Him in all that we do.

YOU BEING HERE IS NO ACCIDENT!

God brought you here
for His purpose.

God loves you.

He desires for you to have a meaningful life with Him in the present and gain eternal life with Him in the future.

Know therefore that the Lord your God,
He is God, the faithful God, who keeps His covenant and His lovingkindness to a thousandth generation with those who love Him and keep His commandments
— Deuteronomy 7:9

God is holy.

We are sinful, and our sin separates us
from Him.

Everyone has sinned and is far away from God's saving presence. — Romans 3:23

God is merciful.

In His love, He made the only way for us to be reconciled to Him: through His son, Jesus Christ. Jesus had to die on the cross for our sins and be raised to life for eternity.

But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Much more then, having now been justified by His blood, we shall be saved from the wrath of God through Him. — Romans 5:8

I am the way, and the truth, and the life;
no one comes to the Father but through
Me. — John 14:6

God is gracious.

By placing our faith in Jesus Christ, we are forgiven of our sins and saved from eternal death.

For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish, but have eternal life. — John 3:16

For by grace you have been saved through faith; and that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God; not as a result of works, so that no one may boast. — Ephesians 2:8-9

Would you like to place your faith in Jesus Christ today?

Lord Jesus, I need You. I confess that I am a sinner. I believe that You died on the cross to pay for all my sins. With Your help, I will turn away from my sins. Please come into my life and be my Savior and my Master. I accept Your gift of eternal life. Make me the kind of new person You want me to be. Thank You for giving me eternal life. Amen.

God keeps His promises.

You can be sure that you have eternal life
when you trust in Jesus.

And the testimony is this, that God has given us eternal life, and this life is in His Son. He who has the Son has the life; he who does not have the Son of God does not have the life. These things I have written to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, so that you may know that you have eternal life. — 1 John 5:11-13
