

Worship God with Your Whole Being

LAST WEEK'S MESSAGE

It is easy to think that worship begins when we enter the church hall or sit down to listen to a Sunday sermon. But long before a song is sung or a message is preached, worship begins by knowing who God truly is. The more we grow in our knowledge of Him, the more our worship naturally overflows through our words, our attitudes, and the way we live each day, because worship is the natural response of a heart that has come to know and experience God.

Worship with Your Head

True worship begins with knowing who God is. Psalm 95 calls us to gather with joy, singing and giving thanks because the Lord is the great God, the Creator and King over all (Psalm 95:1-5). As we grow in our understanding of His greatness, our worship becomes centered on pleasing Him rather than ourselves. David understood this well. As the ark of God was brought into Jerusalem, he celebrated before the Lord with all his might because his joy was rooted in God's presence, not in people's approval (2 Samuel 6:14-15). Like David, we are called to come before God with joyful hearts, recognizing that He is present among His people. This awareness shapes how we prepare, how we arrive, and how we worship together.

Worship with Your Heart

Knowing who God is should lead us to respond with reverence. Psalm 95 invites us to bow down before the Lord because He is our God and we are the people of His pasture (Psalm 95:6). Throughout Scripture, those who encountered God's holiness responded with humility and awe, just as Moses removed his sandals before the burning bush (Exodus 3:4-5). The more we see God's greatness, holiness, and love, the more our hearts are transformed to honor Him. David recognized that everything he possessed belonged to God, so he gave generously and joyfully for His work (1 Chronicles 29:10-17). When we remember that all we have comes from Him, worship shapes every area of our lives as we give, serve, and obey with grateful hearts.

Worship with Your Hands

What we believe about the future shapes how we live today. Scripture teaches that Jesus will return, and His return should fill believers with hope and expectation. As we wait, we are called to live faithfully and remain ready. When our hearts are captivated by God's glory, we begin to long for Christ's return more than anything this world can offer. We look forward to the day when every promise will be fulfilled, every wrong will be made right, and we will be with Him forever.

A heart in awe of God proclaims His glory, surrenders to His will, and lives in anticipation of His return. As we grow in our understanding of who He is, may our lives become a continual act of worship, bringing honor and glory to Him alone.

last week's memory verse

For He is our God, and we are the people of His pasture and the sheep of His hand. Today, if you would hear His voice, do not harden your hearts, as at Meribah, as in the day of Massah in the wilderness,

PSALM 95:7-8

YOU BEING HERE IS NO ACCIDENT!

God brought you here
for His purpose.

God loves you.

He desires for you to have a meaningful life with Him in the present and gain eternal life with Him in the future.

*Know therefore that the Lord your God,
He is God, the faithful God, who keeps His covenant and His lovingkindness to a thousandth generation with those who love Him and keep His commandments
— Deuteronomy 7:9*

God is holy.

We are sinful, and our sin separates us
from Him.

Everyone has sinned and is far away from God's saving presence. — Romans 3:23

God is merciful.

In His love, He made the only way for us to be reconciled to Him: through His son, Jesus Christ. Jesus had to die on the cross for our sins and be raised to life for eternity.

But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Much more then, having now been justified by His blood, we shall be saved from the wrath of God through Him. — Romans 5:8

*I am the way, and the truth, and the life;
no one comes to the Father but through
Me. — John 14:6*

God is gracious.

By placing our faith in Jesus Christ, we are forgiven of our sins and saved from eternal death.

For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish, but have eternal life. — John 3:16

For by grace you have been saved through faith; and that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God; not as a result of works, so that no one may boast. — Ephesians 2:8-9

Would you like to place your faith in Jesus Christ today?

Lord Jesus, I need You. I confess that I am a sinner. I believe that You died on the cross to pay for all my sins. With Your help, I will turn away from my sins. Please come into my life and be my Savior and my Master. I accept Your gift of eternal life. Make me the kind of new person You want me to be. Thank You for giving me eternal life. Amen.

God keeps His promises.

You can be sure that you have eternal life
when you trust in Jesus.

And the testimony is this, that God has given us eternal life, and this life is in His Son. He who has the Son has the life; he who does not have the Son of God does not have the life. These things I have written to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, so that you may know that you have eternal life. — 1 John 5:11-13
