

Live Your Purpose, Take Bold Steps of Faith

LAST WEEK'S MESSAGE

It's hard to step out of our comfort zone in a world filled with uncertainty and chaos. We naturally cling to stability, but in doing so we may lose sight not only of ourselves but also of God's purpose for our lives. Every follower of Christ has been given a purpose that goes beyond convenience: we are called to participate in God's mission. As we trust His unfailing plans and promises, we can rely on His strength, guidance, and faithfulness regardless of who we are or the circumstances we face.

Give God Something

Sometimes we refuse to move forward because we prefer what feels stable and comfortable. But as Christians, God reminds us that life isn't meant to be merely safe, it is meant to be lived by faith. Like the four lepers who had to choose between dying in the city or boldly entering the enemy camp, we are often faced with decisions that can change not only our lives but also the lives of those around us. Living by faith isn't always comfortable, but it is the pathway to seeing God work (Hebrews 11:6).

God Makes a Way

It's difficult to look beyond our circumstances when our resources, time, and efforts seem too limited to solve our problems. But God doesn't work the way we do. Our confidence isn't anchored in our own abilities but in trusting Him and surrendering to His will. When the lepers arrived at the enemy's camp, they discovered that God had caused the Aramean army to hear the sound of a great army, prompting them to flee and leave everything behind (2 Kings 7:6–8). Our problems may seem overwhelming, but God often uses them as opportunities for us to depend on Him and experience His power and grace in ways we never could on our own.

He is Good News

When the lepers discovered the abandoned camp filled with food, treasure, and supplies, they knew they couldn't keep the good news to themselves (2 Kings 7:9). They were the last people anyone expected to save the city. They were outcasts, rejected and overlooked, yet God chose them to deliver a message that would save lives. In the same way, our failures and weaknesses don't disqualify us from being used by God. He has placed each of us where we are for a reason. When we take a step of faith, God uses ordinary people to point others to the hope found in Jesus and share the life-changing message of the gospel.

last week's memory verse

"Again I say to you, that if two of you agree on earth about anything that they may ask, it shall be done for them by My Father who is in heaven.

MATTHEW 18:19

discuss this message

What "famine" in my life is holding me back from stepping out in faith?

Am I willing to take a leap of faith in community with others?

How can I actively share the "good news" I've received from God in my life?

YOU BEING HERE IS NO ACCIDENT!

God brought you here
for His purpose.

God loves you.

He desires for you to have a meaningful life with Him in the present and gain eternal life with Him in the future.

*Know therefore that the Lord your God,
He is God, the faithful God, who keeps His covenant and His lovingkindness to a thousandth generation with those who love Him and keep His commandments
— Deuteronomy 7:9*

God is holy.

We are sinful, and our sin separates us
from Him.

Everyone has sinned and is far away from God's saving presence. — Romans 3:23

God is merciful.

In His love, He made the only way for us to be reconciled to Him: through His son, Jesus Christ. Jesus had to die on the cross for our sins and be raised to life for eternity.

But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Much more then, having now been justified by His blood, we shall be saved from the wrath of God through Him. — Romans 5:8

*I am the way, and the truth, and the life;
no one comes to the Father but through
Me. — John 14:6*

God is gracious.

By placing our faith in Jesus Christ, we are forgiven of our sins and saved from eternal death.

For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish, but have eternal life. — John 3:16

For by grace you have been saved through faith; and that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God; not as a result of works, so that no one may boast. — Ephesians 2:8-9

Would you like to place your faith in Jesus Christ today?

Lord Jesus, I need You. I confess that I am a sinner. I believe that You died on the cross to pay for all my sins. With Your help, I will turn away from my sins. Please come into my life and be my Savior and my Master. I accept Your gift of eternal life. Make me the kind of new person You want me to be. Thank You for giving me eternal life. Amen.

God keeps His promises.

You can be sure that you have eternal life
when you trust in Jesus.

And the testimony is this, that God has given us eternal life, and this life is in His Son. He who has the Son has the life; he who does not have the Son of God does not have the life. These things I have written to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, so that you may know that you have eternal life. — 1 John 5:11-13
